3. Display the "And Justice for All" poster in a conspicuous place in each approved site and the administrative office.
4. Train staff on civil rights annually. Specific subject areas include:
 - Collecting and using data: Data is collected on ethnicity and race. Parent self-declares. If they refuse, institution staff will code based on perception. All material must be filed in an area of restricted access and retained for three years.
 - Effective public notification systems: Display the "And Justice for All" poster, use the nondiscrimination statement, provide information in other languages and alternative formats as needed, and convey equal opportunity in all photos and other graphics on websites, publications, etc.
 - Complaint procedures: Procedures must be established to accept complaints or grievances based on race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability. CACFP participants must be advised of their right to file a complaint, how to file a complaint, and the complaint procedures.
 - Compliance review techniques: Ensure civil rights requirements are being followed during review process.

- Resolution of non-compliance: Inappropriate actions must cease. A corrective action plan is required and appropriate procedures must be implemented.
- Requirements for reasonable accommodation of persons with disabilities: Entrances and exits to accommodate the disabled, Braille signage, and alternative arrangements for service must be available when needed.
- Requirements for language assistance: Bilingual personnel and materials must be provided depending on need, resources available, and cost.
- Conflict resolution: Use alternative dispute resolution techniques when necessary. Treat others with respect.
- Customer service: Treat others the way they want to be treated or at least be aware of what that is.
